A DOMESTIC COMEDY

Of the Highest Rank is What "The Missouri Girl," Which Comes to the Traders Grand Soon, is Claimed To Be.

Dramatic critics unanimously agree that "The Missouri Girl" stands first among domestic comedies. The New York Telegraph pronounces it "one of the best written comedies ever seen in New York." The New York World calls it a "good play," and adds that the production includes "an unusually clever lot of people."

The Chicago Chronicle, as well as the News, Record-Herald and Tribune, strongly endorse the production. The St. Louis Globe-Democrat pronounced the company "exceedingly clever," the Times-Star of the same city says "play and company made a decided hit." The Toledo News was quite enthusiastic in its praise and says it is "a clean, wholesome, mirth-provoking play, with a small Commercial Tribune pronounces the company "thoroughly competent. In Pittsburgh, the Dispatch, Post and Times do not hesitate to endorse it. It is the same in smaller cities.

If newspaper praise is a criterion by which to judge an attraction "The Missouri Girl" will easily be the comedy treat of the season. It comes to the Traders Grand Opera house soon.

 There has been an epidemic in the wake of Miss Bob White which resembles the deadly work of "the kissing-bug." It is booked for appearance at the Traders Grand opera house soon.

AN ENTIRELY NEW GROWTH
 "My hair was getting very thin. Every morning I would comb out great handfuls of it. Nothing that I used stopped its falling out or helped it until, by the advice of a friend, I tried Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. From the very beginning the tonic was beneficial. Not only has it stopped my hair from falling, but it has produced an entirely new growth. My hair is now soft and glossy, where before it was harsh, brittle and dull. I shall recommend Rexall "93" Hair Tonic to all my friends.—MILDRED SEELEY, 148 East 27th Street, New York City."
